

Removal Van

1 What do the labels on the diagram tell you about?

Tick one.

the parts of the van where the van goes

the size of the boxes

how the people drive

2 What does the computer do?

3 What are the hooks for?

4 How do the people move the lifting platform?

Mr Davies and the Baby

By Charlotte Voake

Once upon a time there was a little dog called Mr Davies. All day long he stayed in his garden.

He sniffed the smells and dug holes in the flower beds.

He ate his meals, and when it rained he slept in his kennel.

Practice questions

A Which words tell you this is the beginning of a story?

B What did Mr Davies do when it rained?

Tick one.

He ate his meals.

He slept in his kennel.

He sniffed the smells.

He dug holes in the flower beds.

Next door to Mr Davies lived a baby.

Every single day, the baby and his mother went out for a walk.

“Hello, Mr Davies,” the baby’s mother said. The baby clapped his hands and laughed and Mr Davies wagged his tail. Mr Davies watched them go down the road and wished he could go with them.

1 Who lived next door to Mr Davies?

2 . What did Mr Davies do when he saw the baby?

Tick one.

- | | | | |
|-----------------------|--------------------------|---------------------|--------------------------|
| He laughed. | <input type="checkbox"/> | He went next door. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| He clapped his hands. | <input type="checkbox"/> | He wagged his tail. | <input type="checkbox"/> |

Then one day, Mr Davies found he could squeeze right under the gate, and he came out to meet the baby.

The baby was very excited. So was Mr Davies, and he jumped about and wagged his tail. "Nice dog," said the baby's mother. "Now go home, Mr Davies."

But Mr Davies was much too excited to listen. He just wagged his tail harder and followed them down the road.

Mr Davies was very good until he saw some ducks.

"Mr Davies, come here!" shouted the baby's mother.

3 How did Mr Davies get out of the garden?

4 What did the baby's mother want Mr Davies to do?

Tick one.

make the baby laugh chase the ducks go home

dig holes

The next day Mr Davies went for a walk with the baby again, But this time he chased a cat.

And the next day Mr Davies saw a man on a bicycle and chased him up the road.

People asked the baby's mother,

"Is this your dog?"

"No, he is not," she said.

5 Give three things Mr Davies chased.

One has been done for you.

1. _____ ducks _____

2. _____

3. _____

6 Why did people ask the baby's mother Is this your dog?

Tick one.

He was always with them.

He lived with her.

He chased the cat away.

She had him on a lead.

One day the baby's mother went next door.

"Please could you stop Mr Davies getting out of the garden?" she asked.

The next day Mr Davies ran to meet the baby and the baby held out his arms.

But just as Mr Davies got to the gate he came to a sudden STOP.
Poor Mr Davies had been tied to his kennel!
He barked and barked but he could not get free.

7 Why did the baby's mother want Mr Davies to stay in the garden?

8 Why did the baby hold out his arms?

Tick one.

he was afraid of Mr Davies

he wanted to shut the gate

he was pleased to see Mr Davies

he wanted something to eat

9 Why Mr Davies come to a sudden stop?

10 Why did Mr Davies bark and bark?

Tick one.

He wanted his dinner.

He wanted his kennel.

He saw a cat.

He wanted to be set free.

The baby and his mother set off down the road. Soon they couldn't hear Mr Davies barking any more. The baby was sad. Even the baby's mother was sorry that Mr Davies had been tied up.

It was very quiet.

Then suddenly they heard a SMASHING and a BANGING and a happy BARKING coming towards them. It was Mr Davies...

... and he was bringing his kennel with him!

The very next day the baby and his mother bought Mr Davies a beautiful lead.

Now he goes walking with them every day, and everyone is happy, even the ducks!

11 Why did the baby's mother feel sorry for Mr Davies?

Tick one.

Mr Davies was hungry.

Mr Davies was chasing ducks.

Mr Davies was tied up.

Mr Davies was asleep.

12 Find and copy two word that show Mr Davies was making a loud noise.

1. _____

2. _____

13 How do you think Mr Davies felt as he came towards them?

Tick one.

excited quiet sad

sorry

14 a) At the end, why was Mr Davies happy?

b) Why were the ducks happy?

Making a Paper Sunflower

What you need:

a clean paper plate sticky tape

yellow paper

seeds

green paper

a wooden stick glue stick petal shape scissors

leaf shape

1 What does the list tell you?

Tick one.

how to play a game

how to make a paper hat

what you need to make a cake

what you need to make a paper sunflower

2 What do you need to use?

Tick three things.

yellow paper

blue paper

a cardboard box

seeds

leaf shape

paper clips

What to do:

- 1 Draw around the petal shape 14 times on the yellow paper and carefully cut out the petals.

- 2 Make sure your plate is the right way up, then put some glue around the rim.

- 3 Stick the petals all the way around the rim, making sure they touch each other.

- 4 Spread some glue over the middle of the flower and stick on your seeds.
Do this quickly so the glue does not dry out!
You can make a pattern if you like.

- 3 What kind of text is in the boxes?

Tick one.

a story

a letter instructions labels

- 4 Why must you stick the seeds on quickly?

5 Leave your sunflower to dry.

6 Turn your sunflower over and tape the wooden stick to the back of the flower. Make sure you use plenty of sticky tape!

7 Draw around two or three leaf shapes on green paper and cut them out.

8 Tape the leaf shapes to the stick.

9 When you have finished choose a place for your sunflower where everyone can enjoy looking at it.

5 What are you told to do after you cut the leaf shapes out?
